Bigamy Charge Against Solicitor.

Mrs. W. L. Myers, of Chicago, Ill., aged about 23 years, appeared before Judge Denis Dundon in the county court yesterday afternoon and asked that a warrant be issued against her husband, Wm. Myers, a picture agent, who has his headquarters in this city, alleging bigamy. Mrs. Myers in company with her sister, Mrs. C. A. Baumer, came to this city in quest of her husband who, she alleges, deserted her four years ago, only to find him married to another woman.

According to the statement of Mrs. Myers, who was formerly Miss Hyden, she was married to Myers, whose home at that time was in Burdette, N. Y., at Effington, Ill., where she resided about six years ago. A short time afterwards they moved to Chicago where they lived for two years when Myers deserted her and until a few weeks ago she knew nothing of his whereabouts.

Myers has been employed by a Chicago firm taking orders for enlarged pictures and has been operating in this and surrounding towns for some time. Previous to coming to Paris he had his headquarters in Lexington. When wife No. 1 made her appearance yesterday an investigation conducted by the officials revealed the fact that Myers was united in marriage on November 7, 1911, to Miss Madeline Thomas, of this city, by Elder J. T. Sharrard.

Mrs. Myers said the first information she had of the location of her husband was gained in Chicago when she learned that he was employed as a solicitor for the McIntyre Art Co., of that city, and it was through this firm she learned that he was located in Lexington. According to her story she wrote to him at that point, receiving no reply and her letter was not returned. A short time after she addressed a post card to Myers who had been boarding with Mrs. Thomas Dudley in Lexington.

Myers took wife No. 2 to Lexington with him following the second marriage and the couple spent three weeks at the home of Mrs. Dudley. Departing they left behind them a three weeks bill for board. At about this time the post card addressed to Myers coming from his wife in Chicago was received at his former boarding house and Mrs. Dudley directed a reply to wife No. 1, stating that Myers was again married and gave his address in this city.

Upon receiving this information Mrs. Myers came to this city. The warrant against Myers was issued and placed in the hands of Deputy Sheriff Ernest Martin, who went to the home of Myers on West Seventh street to place him under arrest, but evidently hearing of the presence of his first wife in the city Myers had taken his departure and up to a late hour last night had not been apprehended.

MATRIMONIAL.

—Miss Grace Ingram, daughter of Mr. Park Ingram, of Cynthiana, and Mr. Russell Grinnell, of that city, formerly of Paris, were married at the home of the bride in that city yesterday afternoon. They came to Paris last night for a visit to the groom's relatives.

—Mr. Joseph Austin, of this county, and Mrs. Mary Patterson, of Lexington, were united in marriage Wednesday evening at eight o'clock at the residence of the officiating minister Elder Mark Collis in Lexington.

The announcement of the marriage came in the nature of a surprise to the friends of the contracting parties and the wedding was the culmination of a romance which began while the groom was a college student and the bride a school girl. Mr. Austin resides on the Bethlehem pike near this city and is one of Bourbon's most substantial farmers.
